

October

Miss Robyn's Classroom
Newsletter

October 5-9

This Weeks Unit
Christopher
Columbus
Welcome fall
Letter "A"
Number 0
Introduction to sign language

Special Happenings
Fall Nature Walk
Fire Truck comes to visit!
Make our own edible
ships

Read Aloud: The ants go marching one by one, A is for Apple, There's an alligator under my bed, Achoo! Good manners for animals (and children), Alpha Tales, Bear Sees Colors, My many color days, Aunt Flossies' Hats and crab cakes later, poems, Christopher Columbus, Splat the Cat

Vocabulary/Sight Words: Color words, shapes, foliage, seasons, squirrels, acorns, autumn, letter Aa and sounds, exploration

Class Discussions: Classroom rules, change of seasons, safety around fire, Christopher Columbus, memories

Math: Graphing, leave counting, number zero in English and Spanish, making predications, sorting, learning sizes (small, medium, big/large/biggest) making predictions

Science: Fire – Good types of Fire and Bad types of fire, stop drop and roll

Gross Motor: Falling leaves game (positional words)

Fine Motor – Cutting fire truck using scissors, tearing small pieces of paper, practice holding pencils/crayons, penmanship

Author of the Month: Anne Rockwell – Flashing Fire Engines

Music: The Ants go marching one by one plus fall thematic songs

Parent Info:

Show & Tell starts this week.

Please bring in something that starts with the letter "A" on his/her assigned day!

Just a reminder Park Shore will be closed October 12, 2020.
Enjoy your long weekend!

Activities related to Literature or Theme

Alligators
Fall Trees
Anne Rockwell related activities
Christopher Columbus
Memory box