

March

15-19

Miss Robyn's Classroom Newsletter

This Weeks Unit

exploring rainbows
Saint Patrick's Day
Review of colors,
phonetic awareness,
numbers and sight
words

Special Happenings

In like a lion out like a lamb.
Ask your child what kind of day it is.

Saint Patrick's Day fun and party! I hope we can catch that leprechaun this year with our traps.

Read Aloud: Alpha Tales - Umbrella Bird's Umbrella, weekly reader, Various Dr. Seuss books, my underwear poem, umbrella, Aliens in Underpants save the World, Thelma the Unicorn, United States on smart board

Vocabulary/Sight Words: Winter, phonetic awareness, sight words, placement words, plants, seedlings, stem, roots, opposites, cvc words as well as sight words

Letter of week –Uu alphabet chants, letter wheel, word list, penmanship, Draw the letter u words

Math: sorting, shapes, number identification, patterns, comparing, more or less, counting cards, clock hands, quarter, sequential order, comparing groups, before, after, continue working on numbers 0-19

Social Skills: getting homework out of backpacks, communication for needs, unpacking bags independently, kindergarten readiness skills, Author of the Month: continue Dr. Seuss – We will be discussing rhyming words and word families.

Science: investigation of living things, discover things that are under the ground, continue talking about spring, rainbow experiment

Social Studies: exploring the united states and landmarks, and flag.

Parent Info: If your child would like to share Dr. Seuss books of their own please send it in so we can read it together.

Please send in half gallon milk containers for our spring project.

Please visit our website, www.parhshoredaycamp.com on a regular basis for important school news, photos and updates.

Don't forget your jackets and sneakers for outdoor fun.

Activities related to Literature or Theme

Unicorn Umbrella
Classroom bulletin boards Literacy links
underwear