Theme: Winter Fun!

A note from the teacher...

January has brought so many exciting changes, and we are thrilled to share how much the children have grown! They are talking more, showing a desire to do things independently, and stepping into new milestones with confidence. Many of them have begun potty training IN UNDIES, and we are celebrating their incredible success! Tears are becoming a distant memory as they show us daily how much they love school and embrace new challenges. At home, we encourage you to let them take those independent steps—they are truly capable of so much more than we realize!

Highlights from the week...

Literacy

I've got some letters, let's see what they say,
They spell my name in a special way!
First comes one, then two, then three,
Let's spell it together—come learn with me!

Clap each letter, nice and loud,
Then take a bow—you've made me proud!
Your name is yours, it's one of a kind,
Let's spell it again, and see what we find!

Math

Let's count together, one to ten,
Say them loud, and start again!

1, 2, 3, touch your knee,
4, 5, 6, do some kicks.
7, 8, 9, stand in a line,
10 is here, now we're fine!

Clap your hands and shout hooray,
We just counted—hip hip hooray!

Extra Fun!

Let's learn of Lunar New Year's light,
Lanterns glow, so big and bright!
Dragons dance, and wishes soar,
A joyful time we all adore.

Dr. King's dream still rings true,
Equality for me and you.
His voice of love, so strong and clear,
Inspires us all year after year.

The winter winds are chilly and bold,
Time to bundle up from the cold.
Scarves and mittens, hats, and boots,
Keep us warm in frosty pursuits.

So as the seasons shift and play,
We learn and grow along the way!
